WHO IS PHIL WATKIS?

From Rebel Salute in Jamaica, to Roots Home Coming Festival in Gambia, Soul Fest in Canada and Aarhus Reggae Festival in Denmark, reggae singer-songwriter Phil Watkis has been hard at work, leaving his musical imprint on the world. Born in St. Ann, Jamaica, Phil's calling was apparent from his earliest memory of basking in the sun under a tree, strumming a borrowed guitar as nature chimed in, with a bird chirping to the melody. The universe had sent a clear message, music had chosen him.

Honing his craft by composing, creating and high school friendly clashes with fellow schoolmates, Phil credits much of his early musical development to renowned producer Mike Bennett. Mike provided plentiful sound musical advice and guidance. The latter culminated for Phil in several well received musical offerings such as "Falling For You," "Mama Struggles," "Face The Hardest" and "Broken Promises," which led to modest hits making their way to international airwaves. By Summer 2017, Phil was performing in front of thousands of people from around the world, at some of the largest international reggae festivals. Phil's breakthrough single was titled, "Hustlers Anthem," which was released by Vpal Music/Vp Records. "Hustlers Anthem" was paired with a video which premiered on the popular platform Reggaeville.

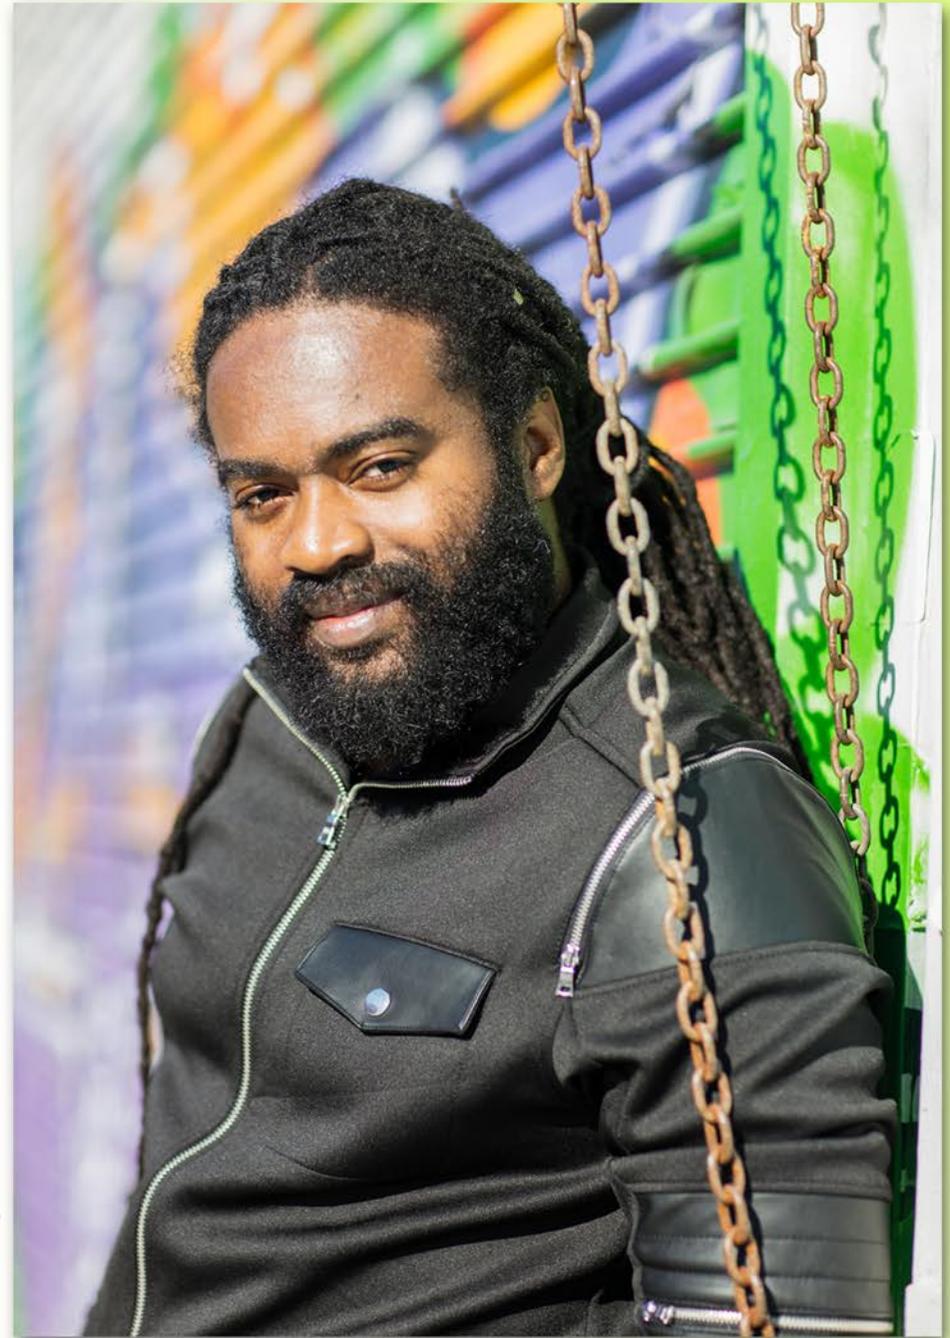

Having had the honor of productions with some of the most notable names in the reggae business, namely Mike Bennett, Dean Fraser, Eloy Daron and Romel Marshall, Phil and his production team Radical Roots Records, have also contributed to his growing discography. As 2018 promises more music, shows and videos by the multi-talented reggae artist, the highlight to come will be Phil Watkis anticipated debut album, "The Insurrection."

“TALENT IS NEVER MADE,
IT IS GIVEN...
THE HOLDER OF THE TALENT
HAS TWO CHOICES:
USE IT OR ABUSE IT.”

“Talent is a gift given to a particular individual and who was granted a vision to use it to create heaven on earth. Some see the vision, other’s don’t. Phil Watkis saw his vision and took the challenge. That challenge was simple- let your music speak to the lover, to the hopeful, to the hopeless. to the afflicted, to the loner, to the child, to the mother, to the father, to the young, to the old even to those unborn. And that he did and the Creator is pleased.” By @876IconsNVoices.
